

PB&J Family Services, Inc. Bill of Rights/Statement of Values

PB&J Family Services Inc. believes in the rights of our families to live together in a manner, which would assure the developmental and emotional potential of the child, and harmony of all family members.

We believe:

- Families have a right to respect.
- Children have a right to appropriate educational opportunities, without the stigma of a labeling or reduced expectations.
- Families have a right to live free of discrimination and in suitable housing
- Families have rights to religious freedom
- Families have a right to legal counsel and assistance in protecting their rights

We recognize

- The responsibility of our sites to provide equal opportunity, availability, and quality of services to all, without regard to ethnicity, race, color, national orgin, socioeconomic class, gender, gender identity, age, sexual orientation, primary language,
- spiritual beliefs or disability.
 Our responsibility to be aware and responsive to unique community needs while keeping informed about other public and private emergency, advocacy, supportive, treatment, educational, and other social services in our communities appropriate for your family

We will:

Work toward the preservation of the dignity and personal safety of all clients served at PB&J Family Services

- Subscribe to the right of every client to have an Individual Family Service Plan along with a service team to best meet your family's individual needs.
- Support our family's rights to live free from abuse, neglect, financial or other exploitation, humiliation and retaliation.

To learn more about our Bill of Rights or to report a complaint please contact PB&J Family Services Inc. at 505-877-7060

Rev. 16/08 (I-8)